Azimut 42'

£189,950

ASYLUM OF PORT SOLENT. From 2001 she comes with the full spec Mediterranean widget list and nice 390hp Cats which supply plenty of rocket power. Extremely pukka example of her class which gleams form zatch to guggle.

Colombo 33'

Offers please

STEFFANI. Riva-esque motoryacht with massive amounts of rocket power via her twin 370hp Mercruisers. From 1986, now needs a new owner to undertake the transformation that will have heads turning from Newtown Creek to St Tropez.

Nimbus 330/350 Nova

£129,000

SELENE. These open topped Novas are like Hen's teeth, from 2004, twin Volvo KAD 300s give her 37 knots – how's that? Jolly nice downstairs and all done in the best possible Scandinavian taste. Owners have done the polishing thing.

Scorpion 8.5

£29,950

GROWLER. Swanky machine with room for 8 to get thoroughly wet aboard. From 1999 with 6 cylinder 300hp Yanmar that is just the job for full loads and when you want to floor it.

Westerly Corsair

£43,950

BLUE VINNY. Evergreen mid range cruising yacht that is perfect for a spot of world girdling for very much less than a king's ransom. Built 1983, she has only ever had this owner. ARC 2010 anyone?

Contessa 32'

£34,950

SEA JAY. Charming David Sadler design that looks good from absolutely every angle. From 1979, funky blue hull and lots of kit and caboodle for cruising. Massively spoodled by this owner.

Windy

Windy 25' Mirage

£42,500

ANY 1. Definitely the Mini Cooper of the sea – but more fun! From 2001, Volvo KAD 44, lots of nice widgets and perfect for messing about on the water aboard.

Windy 28' Ghibli

£82,000

HOLA QUERIDA. Windy build and finish meets Riva – this yacht really is the Windy Riva. From 2004, is very much loved, much wallet emptying and never put away wet. Now ready for a new owner. Volvo D3s supply the rocket power.
